

A big thank you to:

- ♦ Dan Cordell
- ♦ Nick Garnett
- ♦ Gina Martin
- ♦ Duncan McAfee
- ♦ Alistair Will
- ♦ the children and teachers of Farnham Common Junior School

Supported by the City of London and the National Lottery through Arts Council England

Burnham Beeches Information Sheet 6

Sensory Trail

This 1 km (under a mile) trail visits woodland, wood pasture and the pond, with five special sculptures to touch, listen to and even sit on.

Get the audio guides, with facts and poetry about the history and wildlife of Burnham Beeches.

- ✓ The path is suitable for wheelchairs, with a short, gradual slope near the pond.
- ✓ There is improved seating along the way.
- ✓ You can download the MP3 audio guides from www.cityoflondon.gov.uk/burnham.
- ✓ You may also borrow the guide and an MP3 player from the Office (10 am - 4 pm, Monday to Friday, small deposit needed): telephone 01753 647358.

Want to Know More?

Contact the Burnham Beeches Office on 01753 647358.

The Sensory Trail

● bench

Sit back and enjoy the smell of each season

Take a new look at the landscape

Feel the force of nature

There are parking bays for blue badge holders by the Café and at Victory Cross.

Listen to the 'sound sticks'

And indulge your taste buds at the Beeches Café!

The Café, toilets and Information Point are all wheelchair friendly.

Reach out and touch the woods

The artworks are inspired by the woodland of Burnham Beeches.

They are made of oak that either fell naturally or had to be cut to help our oldest trees grow better.